

BURNS FATAL TO AGED MOTHER OF FAIRFIELD MAN

A 72-year-old widow who suffered severe burns over most of her head and body Monday morning when a chunk stove exploded as she poured kerosene into it died at 1:45 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Frederick Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Martha Alexander, who resided near Payne's Hill between Emmitsburg and Thurmont, was rushed to the Frederick Hospital in the Emmitsburg VFW ambulance several hours after the 5 a.m. explosion.

Mrs. Alexander, who resided with Steve, the youngest of her six children, had risen early Monday morning to start a fire in a chunk stove in the two-story residence. When she used kerosene on the fire, it flared up and ignited her clothing. The elderly woman ran out of doors and rolled on the ground to extinguish the flames.

Then she called her son who was in bed on the second floor, telling him he'd "have to get his own breakfast" because she "had a pretty bad burn." Unable to get a physician, the son said he called for the Emmitsburg ambulance.

The Alexander home did not catch fire and neighbors said that probably was because of the presence of mind on the part of Mrs. Alexander in going out of doors with her blazing clothing.

FUNERAL ON WEDNESDAY

The deceased was a native of Thurmont, a daughter of the late Hiram and Harriet (Seacrist) Zimmerman. She was the widow of Melancthon Alexander, who died a number of years ago.

The six children surviving are Clarence Alexander, Fairfield; Mrs. Myrtle Recard, Waynesboro; Mrs. Edith Andrews, Thurmont; Paul and Mrs. Caroline Shriner, also of Thurmont, and Steve, at home; two sisters, Mrs. Louis Zimmerman, Smithsburg, Md., and Mrs. Emma Willis, Thurmont. There are 32 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Mrs. Alexander was a member of the Thurmont United Brethren Church.

Funeral services from the Creager Funeral Home in Thurmont Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock with the Rev. Ivan G. Naugle officiating. Interment in Green Hill Cemetery, Waynesboro.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today that he personally is not giving consideration at this time to the questions of either an embargo or a blockade of Red China. His news conference statement left open the possibility that they were under study by other government officials.

The matter of possible new moves against the Chinese Communists was brought up several times in this first meeting Eisenhower has had with reporters since taking office.

On the first occasion, the President was asked whether he was giving any consideration to imposition of either an embargo or a naval blockade of Red China.

He replied the matter had not been discussed with him, except as he put it in the newspapers.

A few minutes later, a reporter brought up the subject again, saying he wanted to make sure he understood the President.

Did the President mean that neither a blockade nor an embargo had been discussed at all? the newsman asked.

Eisenhower said such steps had not been brought up officially, to him.

Attorney Thomas MacBride, Waynesboro, chief counsel for Mrs. Carbaugh, said both Grove and Cool were under subpoena to appear as witnesses for his client.

After a lengthy sidebar conference, however, Judge Edmund C. Wingerd ordered the trial to proceed.

In filing the trespass action, Mrs. Carbaugh asked damages both for herself as widow of the traffic victim and in behalf of Mr. and Mrs. David Carbaugh, Fay (Please Turn to Page 2)

M'SHERRYSTOWN RESIDENTS PAY $22,204 TAXES

McSherrystown residents paid $22,204.58 in taxes during 1952 according to the report of Tax Collector Edward H. deCheubell, filed today with the county clerk of courts.

The report shows that the borough has the lowest school tax in the county, because the largely Catholic population supports its own parochial schools.

No real estate levy was made on the 646 properties in the borough for school purposes. In every other district in the county the largest percentage of the tax dollar goes for school purposes. McSherrystown's only school levy is a $1.50 head tax on the 1471 listed for occupational assessment. That tax brought in $1,877.19 to the school district during the year. The district maintains no schools, sends its few students to Conewago Twp. for their education.

The borough's 19 mill tax secured $12,683.14. County taxes totalled $4,324.40 and institution district taxes were $3,319.85. The tax collector received $800.15 as his fees.

Outstanding taxes total $2,178.48 according to the report including, $1,414.07 borough taxes; $558 school district, $444.99 county and $370.42 institution district.

OPENS ATTACK ON LIVENGOOD

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's Republican administration has come in for a barrage from Senate Democrats for "padding payrolls" with political propagandists.

Sen. George M. Leader (D—York) introduced a resolution requiring that Williams S. Livengood Jr., secretary of internal affairs, be discharged for the cost of printing a "politically biased" 10-page article on President Eisenhower in a state publication during the last election campaign.

Leader said further in Senate debate that he intends asking the Legislature to throw open all of Livengood's expense accounts during the 14 years he has been in office.

Sen. John H. Dent (D—Westmoreland) joined with Leader in sponsoring another resolution demanding that the Senate refuse to approve any appropriations for departments where payrolls are "padded" to obtain personal publicity for department heads.

The Department of Internal Affairs magazine for last October, Leader said, ran an article on Eisenhower's ancestors in Pennsylvania while completely ignoring the fact that Adlai Stevenson, Democratic candidate also had Pennsylvania antecedents.

VETS IN KOREA MAY GET BONUS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A 25 million dollar bonus for Pennsylvania veterans of the Korean War is proposed by Senate Democrats.

"It is only simple justice to pay Korean War veterans bonuses such as we paid World War II veterans," said Sen. John H. Dent (D—Westmoreland), co-sponsor of the bill.

The benefits would amount to $15 per month for each month of service in Korea with either American or Allied forces. The maximum payment, as well as payment to survivors of those killed in the war would be $500.

The measure, co-sponsored by Dent and Sen. Hugh J. McMenamin (D—Lackawanna), also would appropriate $50,000 for administration of the legislation.

Applications for compensation would have to be made within one year after the end of hostilities in Korea or within a year after the veterans discharge — whichever comes first.

SEE ROCKY PATH AHEAD FOR TAX CUT MEASURES

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to cut personal income taxes cleared its first congressional hurdle with ease yesterday, but now faces a rocky path of parliamentary roadblocks, delay and eventual tough opposition.

The proposal, championed by Chairman Reed (R-NY) of the House Ways and Means Committee, would advance by six months—to June 30—a 10-per-cent cut in individual income tax rates. Present law provides for the same reduction Dec. 31. It would wipe out the last increase of 11 per cent. The tax take is now higher, so the percentages differ.

For some 50 million individuals, the proposal means a 5-per-cent reduction in their federal tax bill for calendar 1953. Under the Reed bill or present law, the full 10-per-cent will be felt in 1954.

Means Revenue Loss
For the federal government, the Reed bill means an estimated loss of 1½ billion dollars in revenue, at a time when the defense program will still be running strong and President Eisenhower has pledged to do everything possible to match federal spending with income.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said yesterday the President's views on this issue had not changed.

Because of that prospective revenue loss, House leaders served notice they plan to hold off floor action on the Reed bill until May 1 or later—until they can foresee enough spending cuts to balance the budget, or come close to it.

Reed Won't Wait
But Reed, whose committee approved the bill 21-4, indicated he is in no mood to wait. From that conflict could come a tough parliamentary situation.

Even if the House eventually passes the measure—as most leaders predict—it faces tough sledding in the Senate, where GOP Floor Leader Taft of Ohio and other influential members have urged that tax cuts be delayed into 1954.

WANT TRUMAN ORDER LIFTED

HARRISBURG (AP)—A resolution of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association calls upon President Eisenhower to "rescind at the earliest possible date" President Truman's executive order establishing "security censorship."

The resolution, passed on Sunday by the organization's executive committee, further asks the President to:

"Exercise all the powers and influence of his office toward elimination of the growing tendency to invoke a blackout on public information at all levels of government."

The resolution said the Truman order "establishes censorship at the source of governmental information under the guise of security regulations, in contravention of long established American principles of freedom of information, especially the right of the people to have full knowledge of the operation of their government."

The resolution referred to Executive Order 10,200 issued Sept. 24, 1951.

FINE DENIES CENSORSHIP

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine says "no censorship, implied or real" was involved in a recent order to state agencies that all but "purely routine" news releases must be cleared by his office.

The governor had scheduled a news conference Monday "to clarify" the order but called it off because of an attack of indigestion.

Fine's office said the governor might come to his office from the Indiantown Gap executive mansion later in the day and if he did he would get together with capital correspondents. On the other hand he might remain at the Gap the entire day.

A number of newspaper organizations protested last week's order as "censorship at the source." That Fine denied.

EISENHOWER WILL MAKE F.S.A. CABINET POST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Taft (R-O.) said Monday President Eisenhower wants to make a Cabinet-rank government department out of the Federal Security Administration and has set machinery in motion to create such a department.

Taft, the Senate Republican floor leader, gave this word to reporters after a 40-minute meeting of congressional leaders with the President.

He said much of the session was spent in discussion on the question of repudiating certain "secret agreements" made by Presidents Roosevelt and Truman.

Draft Repudiation
Some progress was made toward drafting a repudiation resolution such as Eisenhower has called for, Taft added.

In his State of the Union address, Eisenhower said he would shortly ask Congress to repudiate any secret agreements of the past which involved the enslavement of free peoples anywhere.

Taft said the proposed resolution will be introduced in Congress "within a reasonable time."

"I would think it would go through," Taft said.

Taft and House Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) met with newsmen in the office of White House press secretary James C. Hagerty immediately after they and other GOP leaders had held their regular Monday morning strategy conference with the President.

EDUCATORS CAN AID STATE DEPT.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—An educator today told a convention of his colleagues that the State Department would be smart to hire them to promote peace with an "intercultural program."

"It is high time for the cultural approach to be recognized in the U. S. foreign program," declared G. Robert Koppman, associate state superintendent of public instruction from Lansing, Mich.

"Educators and others qualified to give service in the cultural field should assume a major role in planning and executing an intercultural program," he added in a speech prepared for delivery at a general session of the American Association of School Administrators 79th annual convention.

Koopman proposed that 10 per cent of money spent on foreign programs should be devoted to what he called "valid cooperative bi-national and multi-national intercultural activities." Such a program would promote or subsidize links between foreign organizations and groups with similar interests in the U. S.

This program applied to Germany, for example, would promote ties between "worthwhile German leadership education centers... and research centers on group dynamics" in the U. S. he said. Various teachers organizations and education groups in the two nations would be encouraged to work together on problems of joint interest.

VOLCANIC DUST HIDES CRATERS IN ALASKA AREA

KODIAK, Alaska (AP)—Dirty, ash-filled smoke hung today over the base of the Alaska Peninsula, cloaking the identity of a volcano—or volcanos—which began a series of major eruptions Sunday.

The brownish-orange volcanic dust which spewed into the sky eight miles high and spread out 100 miles or more prevented close aerial reconnaissance.

But a Navy patrol plane boring through the thick, ash haze yesterday spotted what appeared to be a new volcano shooting steam 10,000 feet in the air.

No Villages Periled
This dark-cratered cone was about 10 miles from Mt. Katmai, which first was believed the source of Sunday's first giant pillar of smoke. Later, commercial fliers familiar with the region said either Mt. Mageik or Mt. Trident, close by, had suddenly come to life, instead of Katmai.

The "new volcano" reported by the Navy plane apparently was none of these, but an uneasy peak opened up by the other volcanic activity.

No villages have been endangered. The volcanoes are in primitive wilderness about 110 miles northwest of here.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa. (AP)—A 62-year-old woman suffered fatal injuries on Sunday when she slipped on an icy pavement in front of her home and struck her head. Mrs. Dolly B. Bender died a half hour after the accident at Chambersburg Hospital.

Identified the dead youth as Donald Burkley of Blairsville and said the incident occurred Saturday at Campbells Run, Indiana County.

Baceski quoted James Piper, 16, of Blairsville, as saying: "We went to hunt squirrels. Then I suggested we play war. We fired several shots."

A bullet struck young Burkley in the forehead. The trooper said the boys apparently exchanged six or eight shots before Donald fell dead.

Dr. N. Brumbaugh Dies Sunday Night

HUNTINGDON, Pa. (AP)—Funeral services will be held here Wednesday for Dr. Norman Brumbaugh, 68 year old retired professor of chemistry at Juniata College, who died in Jefferson Hospital at Philadelphia Sunday.

A native of Huntingdon, Dr. Brumbaugh established the chemistry department at Juniata in 1925 and was a cousin of A. B. Brumbaugh, one of the school's three founders.

Burial will be in Riverview Cemetery here.

MAY STEP UP MILITARY HELP TO INDOCHINA

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States may step up military shipments to Indochina as part of President Eisenhower's new strategy to try to defeat Communist aggression in the Far East.

No final decision has been made yet. But top administration leaders are reported ready to listen sympathetically to French Premier Rene Mayer. They expect him to make such a request next month during a White House visit.

In advance of Mayer's visit, Cabinet-level planners are reported studying what must be done to end the bloody seven-year-old war, which costs France more than a billion dollars yearly and has claimed nearly 100,000 French casualties.

Behind this new look is Eisenhower's evident belief that the outcome of the Indochinese fighting actually is more important than

The U. S. and its allies, he is said to believe, could survive the loss of Korea by turning Japan into an armed camp to counter any possible new Communist move.

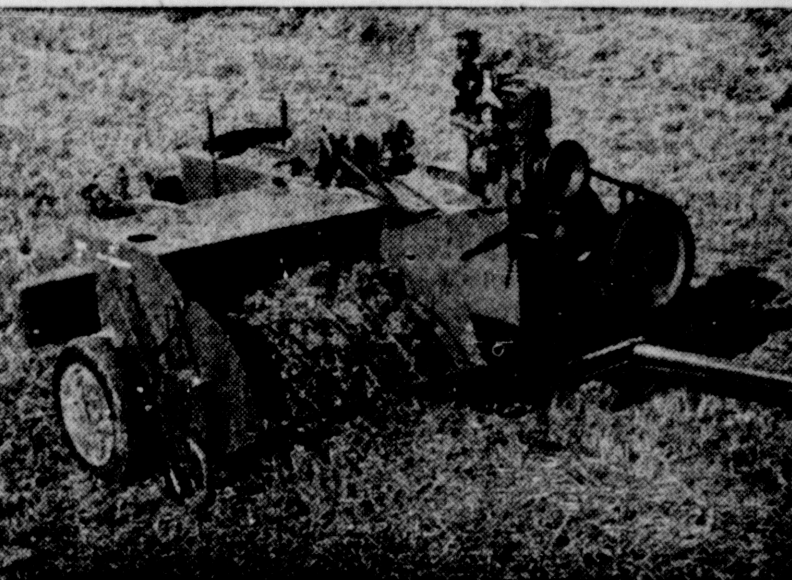

But the loss of Indochina, he reportedly thinks, would eventually lead to the fall of Asia's "Rice Bowl"—Siam, Burma, Indonesia—and pose serious threats to India and Pakistan.

HOLD TWO BOYS
Two 16-year old Brooklyn youths, Herbert V. Jordano and William J. Bredezen, who were "running away from home" according to borough police, were apprehended by police here Sunday night and placed in detention quarters at the county jail pending arrival of relatives to return them to New York.

IT ALWAYS COMES BACK

A sincere and generous deed has eternal value! Whenever we give up something to add to the happiness or comfort of another, we will always get back far more than we give. The law of compensation works that way.

We do a great many things we feel are not appreciated, but we must never forget that the deed itself has a kind of immortality attached to it. We never know how far an act of kindness may go. It may be duplicated a thousand times over the years, from one individual to another.

The action of the woman in the Bible who gave her last mite overshadowed all the others who gave — for she gave all she had. Thus has her example inspired the gifts of an endless number of human beings.

George Gissing, the English novelist, once accosted a child crying
in the street in London. Inquiring, he learned that the child had lost a sixpence. So he immediately replaced that small sum in the hand of the little chap — and, lo, an immediate burst of joy was revealed. But most significant of all was that Gissing remarked that he had himself purchased a sixpence of joy! Knowing from my reading of Gissing how often even a sixpence meant wealth to him, I am inspired by that story.

Never regret doing something that may add to the enjoyment or happiness of another. Not once, but time and again it will be returned to you. The mere satisfaction of having given of the substance of yourself is quite enough.

We have been reading about many men, selected for important positions in the American government, reluctant to give up their great holdings and salaries before being accredited to their important tasks. I am of the opinion, however, that they will realize that public service far outweighs all other earnings.

I was interested in a news item which told of an advertiser sponsoring on TV the program of Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, paying a million dollars for a period of 26 weeks. But from this great sum the Bishop gives all of his share to his fellow creatures, regardless of race, color, or religion. No wonder he is so beloved! And effective.

and Now!"

GETTING OLD
I must be getting older
For today it seems to me
That the winters are much colder
Than in youth they used to be.
And I do not find the pleasure
In a real fall of snow
That was heaped up in the measure
For a boy of long ago.

I remember how my father Used to sit and long for spring
In the days when I would rather Skate or go tobogganning;
Then the rugged joys of winter
Used to thrill me as a kid,
But I've got where I begin to Feel the way my father did.

Yes, I've got where I begin to Long for pleasant days and warm,
For the rough blasts of winter
Send the shivers down my
form.
And I'm past the joys of skating
And I suffer from the cold,
Which are signs beyond debating
That I must be getting old.

Intolerable Conditions Of Melville Prison Described By Yankee Prisoners There

By Captain Samuel White
(An autobiography of an Adams county man in the campaign in 1814 against the British and Indians
in Canada.
(News of British defeat at New Orleans reaches Halifax.)

Sixteenth Installment

Those on board the seventy-four,
with a view of correcting his mistake, shoved out their guns, and gave him a broadside; by dint of several times shifting his course he however, made his escape, and ran on until he thought himself safe, when he lay too, fearful that if he proceeded he would get out of the track of the West Indian; unfortunately for him, however, his antagonist had shaped her course in the same manner, and was alongside before daybreak of the following morning, when before he could get away, she poured into him a broadside, which shot off his mainmast, and otherwise so far disabled him as to preclude all possibility of escape—he consequently struck his flag, and fired into even after that process. When taken, he had twice as many prisoners, as he had of his own crew; they were all taken at Halifax, where they were detained until after the peace.

According to Captain Crowninshield's expectations, in one or two days after he had returned to his place of parole, Captain Cusht came over to pay us, what we called in derision, our starvation money.
More properly, subsistence money,
being twenty dollars per month, in lieu of rations, which was nothing like sufficient to support us; he had a guard with him, and told Crown-shield that he must now set out for Melville prison. In conversation, which they held about the matter,
and in reply to the question of why he should be sent to prison, the captain was informed that it was not for anything he had said, but solely for the tone in which it had been spoken; he was then taken off, and carried to Melville, where they kept him for about ten days,
when he was set at liberty and sent home to Salem. In Melville prison there were confined from twelve to fourteen hundred Americans, who were treated with as much barbarity,
as though the worst of convicts,
some of them being half naked.

Writes Of Suffering
John Hughes, one of my men who was confined there, got an opportunity of writing to me, stating how much he suffered from want of clothes and tobacco, at the time I received his letter. I had but two dollars and three shirts, which, however, I divided with him, giving one dollar and one shirt and a great coat, which proved to him of considerable service.

Melville prison is two hundred feet in length, and fifty broad; it is two stories high the upper one being for officers, and for the infirmary and dispensary, while the lower part is divided into two prisons, one of which was occupied by French, and the other by Americans. The prison yard covers a space of ground of about one acre in extent, the whole

audience in his electrical bicycle feat.

Too much praise cannot be given the three ladies who took part—
Miss Minnie Gintling, Mrs. Wm. D.
Gilbert and Miss Alice Williams.
The excellent music rendered by Miss Mary Sheads added to the pleasure of the evening.

The net receipts amounted to about $100.
Great credit is due Miss Annie Schriver who acted as promptress
at the rehearsals.

Snow Storm: Snow began falling Monday evening and continued all night, reaching a depth of about seven inches. A strong wind prevailed all night and today causing the snow to drift considerably. The thermometer hovered about 10°
above zero all day.

Fair and Festival: The Fireman-band festival and fair opened Monday evening. The Engine House presents a beautiful sight, the electric light is particularly pleasing.

The principal booths are as follows: Downstairs—Cake table, Harry Holtzworth; ice cream tables, E. P.
Wisotzky; lemonade stand, Harry Minnigh; table of delight, S. A.
Troxell; upstairs—fancy table, Wm.
Fleming and D. C. Stallsmith; fish pond, John Eberhart; x-ray machine, Dr. Henry Stewart; candy stand, E. P. Wisotzky; lunch table,
George Reichle.

Many ladies assist at the tables.
One of the principal features is Dr. Stewart's X-ray machine. To look through it a fee of 5 cents
is charged, which is nominal.

island containing little more than five acres; it is connected on the south side with the main land, by a bridge. In a journal which has fallen into my hands, I find a very minute
account, of the prison on Melville Island and the treatment of the unfortunate men confined there, which I copy in order to show my readers, that I am not the only one who speaks hastily of our English captives. With the language or sentiments of the writer I have nothing to do, and merely copy it as confirming my own statement, as to the hardships suffered by the inmates of the prison, and as giving a more minute account of its discipline and regulations, than I was enabled to procure from enquiry. The writer of the journal referred to, went from the Port of Salem, as assistant surgeon, on board a privateer, in December of 1812—the title page of the work is lost, and I am consequently unable to give his name.

Clean Prisons
"As to the inside of the prison
at Melville, if the American reader expects to hear it represented as a place resembling the large prisons
for criminals in the United States,
such as those at Boston, New York,
or Philadelphia, he will be sadly disappointed.

Some of these prisons are as clean, and nearly as comfortable as some of the monasteries and convents on the continent of Europe.
Our own prisons in the United States, reflect great honor on the nation, they speak loudly that we are a considerate and humane people; whereas the prison at Halifax, erected solely for the safe keeping of prisoners of war, resembles a horse stable with stalls or stanchions for separating the cattle from each other. It is to a contrivance of this sort that they attach the cords that support those canvass bags or cradles, called hammocks. Four tiers of these hanging nets were made to swing one above the other, between the stalls or stanchions. To those unused to such lofty sleeping births, they were rather unpleasant situations for repose. But use makes everything easy.

The first time I was shut up for the night in this prison, it distressed me too much to close my eyes. Its closeness and smell were, in a degree, disagreeable, but this was trifling to what I experienced afterwards in another place. The general hum and confused noise from almost every hammock, was at first very distressing. Some would be lamenting their hard fate at being shut up like Negro slaves in a Guinea ship, or like fowls in a hen-coop for no crime, but for fighting the battles of their country. Some were cursing and execrating their oppressors; others late at night were relating their adventures to a new prisoner, others lamenting their aberrations from rectitude, and disobedience to parents, and headstrong wilfulness, that drove them to sea contrary to their parents wish,
while others of the younger class, were sobbing out their lamentations at the thought of what their mothers and sisters suffered, after knowing their imprisonment.

"Turn Out, All Out"
Not infrequently the whole night was spent in that way and when about day-break, the weary prisoner fell into a dose, he was waked
from his slumber by the grinding noise of the locks, and the unbar-ring of the doors, with the cry of "turn out—all out," when each man took down his hammock, and lashed it up and slung it on his back, and was ready to answer to the roll call of the turnkey. If any, through natural heaviness or indisposition, was dilatory, he was sure to feel the bayonet of the soldier, who appeared to us to have a natural antipathy
to a sailor, and from what I observed, I believe that in general, little or no love is lost between them.

This prison is swept out twice a week by the prisoners. The task is performed by the respective messes in turns. When the prison is washed, the prisoners are kept out until it is perfectly dry. This in the wet seasons, and the severity of winter is sometimes very distressing and dangerous to health; for there is no retiring place for shelter, it is like a stable where the cattle are either under cover or exposed to the

WILLIAM, MARY COLLEGE FIRES 30 STUDENTS FOR CHEATING

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP)—The aged College of William and Mary faced a major athletic rebuilding job today in the wake of the nation's worst cribbing scandal since the expulsion of 90 West Point cadets in 1951.

At least a dozen athletes, including first string football and basketball players, were among an esti-

weather, be it ever so inclement.

When we arrived here in May 1813, there were about nine hundred prisoners, but many had died by the severity of the winter, and the quantity of fuel allowed by the British government was insufficient to convey warmth through the prison. The men were cruelly har-rassed by the custom of mustering and parading them in the severest cold, and even in snow storms. The agent, Miller, might have alleviated
the sufferings of our people, had he been so disposed, without relaxation of duty. But he as well as the turnkey, named Grant, seemed to take delight in tormenting the Americans. This man would often keep the prisoners out, for many hours, in the severest weather, when the mercury was ten and fifteen degrees below 0; under a pretext that the prison had been washed, and was not sufficiently dry for their reception, when, in fact every drop of water used was, in a moment, ice.

Unbeaten Bullet Matmen In Big Test With F. And M. Here Wednesday; Cagers At D-son

One of the largest crowds ever to witness a Gettysburg College wrestling match is expected to turn out here Wednesday evening when the undefeated Bullets meet the strong Franklin and Marshall outfit from Lancaster. The freshman teams will engage in a preliminary meet at 7 o'clock.

F. and M. perennially has one of the strongest mat teams in the eastern part of the country. Although its record this season does not come up to previous marks, it rates as probably the best team the Bullets will meet this year.

Coach Jack Shainline's grunts and groan men have scored impressive victories over Haverford, Temple, Muhlenberg and Johns Hopkins. The Diplomats also hold a victory over Temple and on Saturday bowed to powerful Cornell 14-11.

It is no secret in the local camp the Bullets have been pointing to the F. and M. meet all season. They feel that with their veteran team they have a fine chance of gaining the first victory over an F. and M. outfit.

The probable lineups have been announced as follows:

First For Frosh
The college freshmen will be making their first appearance of the season. Coach Shainline has announced that a meet with the Lehigh frosh at Bethlehem on February 28 has been added.

Included among the yearling grapplers will be Jack Ribble, 123; Harry Burdian, 130; Ted Webster, 137; Dave Johnson, 147; Bill Sells, 157; Bill Knapp, 167; Dick Mitchell, 177, and Bob Siebold, heavyweight. Several have never wrestled before.

Three other college teams will see action away on Wednesday. Coach "Hen" Bream's varsity basketball team, back in its winning form via the impressive win at Lehigh, clashes with Dickinson at Carlisle. The Bullet freshmen, beaten last Saturday after four straight wins, will meet the Dickinson frosh in the preliminary.

Jim Lentz will take his swimming team to Lancaster for a meet with F. and M. Wednesday afternoon.

DELAY TWO SAC CONFIRMATIONS

HARRISBURG (P)—An argument over alleged tax payment evasion on the Marciano-Walcott title fight is holding up Senate confirmation of two members of the State Athletic Commission.

Sens. Martin Silvert and Charles R. Weiner, Philadelphia, objected last night to the confirmation of Chairman George J. Jones, Williamsport, and John (Ox) Da Grosa, Philadelphia.

Silvert said he objected to Da Grosa's confirmation because of the commission's argument with Philadelphia tax officials over the destruction of a number of tickets to the heavyweight championship fight last year.

Weiner said Da Grosa would be given "a week to straighten things out." Jones' confirmation was held up by the Da Grosa dispute.

All appointments by the governor needed a two-thirds majority in the Senate for confirmation. Republicans hold 32 seats, two short of the required two thirds.

Both men were approved by the Senate executive Nominations Committee for two-year terms on the $7,000 a year job.

Pirates Have Signed 23 For '53 Season

PITTSBURGH (P)—The Pittsburgh Pirates counted 23 players signed for the 1953 season today following the addition of Bobby Friend, 22-year-old righthanded pitcher.

Joe Garagiola, slated to be the Pirates' first-string catcher, came here from St. Louis home yesterday to discuss his contract. No details of the bargaining were disclosed.

MOUNT DRUBS TOWSON 91-48 IN LOOP GAME

The red hot Mt. St. Mary's basketball team chalked up its eighth straight victory and 14th in 19 games Monday evening when it walloped Towson 91-48 at Emmitsburg.

Coach Bill Clarke used his entire string of 14 players and all but two broke into the scoring column.

A freshman, Charlie O'Donnell, was high point man with 16 points. Sal Angelo got 14 tallies but played less than half the game.

There was never any doubt as to the outcome with the Mountaineers racing to a 23-11 first period lead and moving ahead 47-24 at half time.

The triumph gives the Mount, third-place team in the Mason-Dixon Conference, a loop record of 11-2.

Tonight the Mount plays at Gal- laudet and returns home to meet Wilson Wednesday evening.

In addition to the new entries these former teams will again take part: Union Bridge, New Oxford, Cashtown, Littlestown, Emmitsburg and Thurmont.

The league voted to adopt the by-laws observed last year. It was announced the season will open Sunday, May 3, and end September 6.

George Miller, Union Bridge, vice president, presided in the absence of Dr. D. Luther Beegle, Emmitsburg.

The next league meeting will be held Monday evening, March 16, at 8 o'clock at the Emmitsburg VFW Home.

RUSS MEYER IN BROOKLYN CAMP; SIX PLAYERS IN THREE-WAY DEAL

BROOKLYN (P)—The home folks think the Brooklyn Dodgers traded themselves into a second straight National League pennant by picking up pitcher Russ Meyer.

The temperamental right-hander was the biggest name in a six-player three-way swap late yesterday which shook up National League talent of four clubs.

It probably will take a season's play to figure out who got the best deal.

Shuffle May Go On

The Philadelphia Phillies started the merry-go-round by trading Meyer and some cash to the Boston Braves for first baseman Earl Torgeson. The Braves promptly sent Meyer to Brooklyn in exchange for infielder Rocky Bridges and shortstop Jim Pendleton, then swapped Bridges to Cincinnati for first baseman Joe Adcock. The Braves included another as yet unnamed player in the Cincinnati deal.

The shuffling may not be all over yet since the Reds have been trying to get outfielder Ralph Kiner from Pittsburgh. Branch Rickey supposedly is interested in young infielders. So Bridges may end up with the Pirates.

Everybody Happy
Brooklyn supporters figure they got a starting pitcher while giving up only Bridges, a good fielder who hasn't proved he can hit, and Pendleton, a hot prospect from Montreal but still untried in the majors.

The Dodgers sorely needed another starting pitcher. If he can produce, Meyer, who had a 13-14 record with the Phillies last season, will be taking his turn with Preacher Roe, Billy Loes and Carl Erskine. This will leave Rookie of the Year Joe Black to perform relief chores, the job he handled so well last season.

If Brooklyn was happy so was Boston. A Braves spokesman said the club had been eyeing Pendleton for a long time but that last year the Dodgers wanted players and a lot of cash.

NEW GOLF PRO

HARRISBURG (P)—The new golf professional at the Harrisburg Country Club is Jim Gantz, a native of Lancaster who has been pro of Asheville, N. C., the last two years.

Gantz' signing to a one-year contract succeeding Joe Ludes, resigned, was announced on Sunday. Gantz, 35, started out in golf as a caddy at a Lancaster club. He will assume his new duties March 15.

Sedgman Captures Long Match; Leads

TEANECK, N. J. (P)—Frank Sedgman is one up on his boss, Jack Kramer, today after the longest match in their pro tennis tour.

The Australian star, downed 10-12 in the first set, stormed back to take the next two from Kramer, 10-8 and 12-10, in two hours and 18 minutes at Teaneck Armory last night.

The hard-earned victory gave Sedgman an overall 15-14 match advantage.

The other half of the caravan—Pancho Segura and Ken McGregor—played according to script. Segura turned back McGregor for the 24th time in 30 starts, 6-2, 6-1. There was no doubles match because of the length of the Sedgman-Kramer duel. Kramer and Segura hold a 15-14 edge in the double series.

VILLANOVA IS SETON HALL'S 25TH CONQUEST

NEW YORK (P)—Seton Hall's stranglehold on first place in the weekly Associated Press poll appeared unbreakable today—provided the unbeaten Pirates can win their five remaining games.

A few hours after being voted No. 1 team for the fifth straight week, Seton Hall went out and whipped Villanova, 83-68, last night for No. 25 in the longest winning streak of the year.

Indiana, kingpin of the Big Ten, edged a little closer to Seton Hall, but it appears the Hoosiers are doomed to no better than second place unless the leaders come a cropper.

Washington, La Salle and Illinois all remained in Indian file behind Indiana in this week's poll, but there were shakeups in the lower echelons.

Louisiana State, driving toward a Southeastern Conference title, jumped two places to sixth, showing Oklahoma A&M down a notch. Kansas State moved up two places to eighth, while Western Kentucky remained in the ninth position and Kansas took over 10th. Displaced from the top 10 was De Paul, which fell from seventh to 14th.

GHS Invades Mechanicsburg Tonight; Wildcat Junior Hi Cagers Here For Two Games

Gettysburg High takes to the "road" this week for a pair of games as it renews its drive for the second half title of the South Penn Basketball League. Tonight the Warriors meet Don Seibert's Mechanicsburg Wildcats and Friday clash with the Hanover Nighthawks, last year's title winners.

Both opponents undoubtedly will furnish the Forney-men severe tests in their own ballparks. Each game becomes increasingly important for the league-leading Warriors who have a game margin over Hershey and Chambersburg, now tied for second place and waiting eagerly for the locals to become upset victims.

County League Action

With the 1953 championship of the Adams County League already won by Boiling Springs the main interest in tonight's program will be the games having an important bearing on first division berths. The four top teams will take part in the league playoffs at Biglerville on February 26 and 28. Team 1 meets team 4 and 2 meets 3 in the opening games while the winners and losers clash in the Saturday night finals.

Amended Complaint
Is Filed In Suit

An amended complaint in the action in trespass brought by J. Burton and Helen E. and Jane Louise Witherow, Gettysburg R. 1, against Myles E. Starner, Aspers, was filed Saturday with the county court after two opinions of court were handed down, dismissing one action and permitting the amended complaint to be filed in the other. The matter results from an accident May 20, 1951, when Starner's car, in which Miss Witherow was a passenger, turned over.

The new complaint states that all tires on Starner's car were worn smooth and that he was driving at 65 miles per hour. It asks damages totaling $4,655.75 including $3,500 for pain and suffering. The amended complaint was filed for the Witherows by Attorney Richard A. Brown.

3 MIGs Lost,
7 Damaged;
Enemy Supply
Area Blasted

SEOUL (AP)—U. S. Sabre jets Monday shot down three Russian-built MIGs, probably destroyed another and damaged seven while screening a massive air raid on a big Communist troop and supply buildup area.

The U. S. Fifth Air Force reported the Communist jet fighter losses after announcing earlier that 200 Allied fighter-bombers had turned the supply area southwest of Pyongyang into a boiling mass of smoke and flames.

It was the second straight day of jet dog fights in far Northwest Korea.

The Sabres, outnumbered 45 to 22, shot down two MIGs Sunday, probably destroyed a third and damaged four. They were shielding Allied fighter-bombers which knocked out two generators at the big Sulho hydroelectric plant on the Yalu River boundary of Manchuria.

Monday's target for the big Allied air strike was Kyomipo, about 20 miles southwest of the Korean capital of Pyongyang.

Williams In Battle
Participating in the stepped-up air blows were Marine Capt. Ted Williams, famed former Boston Red Sox slugger, and Air Force Maj. James Jabara, America's first jet ace, who is flying his second combat tour in Korea.

Williams' fighter-bomber developed trouble over the Kyomipo target area — presumably hit by ground fire. He managed to get the plane back to an Allied airstrip and crash-landed. He walked away from the wrecked and blazing plane.

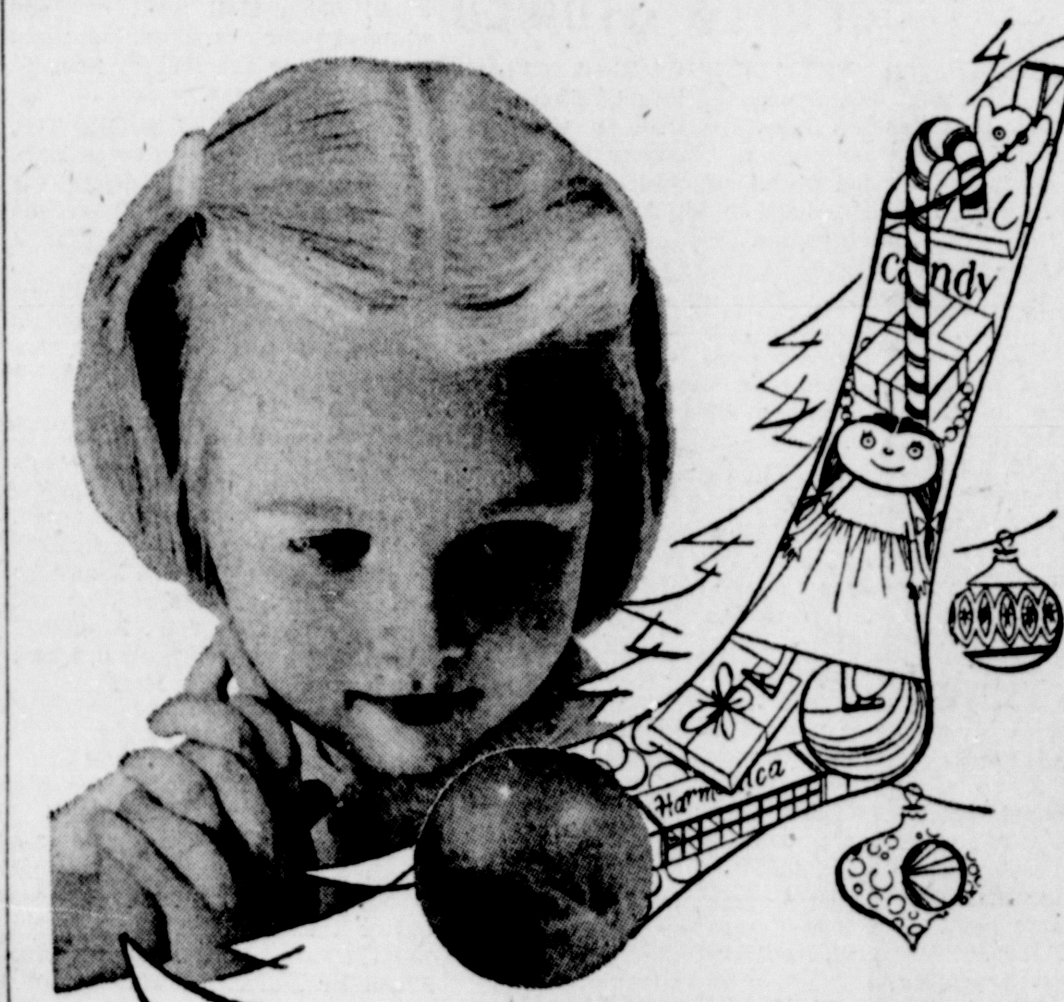

Jabara, from Wichita, Kan., was credited with damaging a MIG — the first claim of his second combat tour after 20 or more fruitless missions. On his first tour Jabara destroyed six MIGs, probably destroyed another and damaged four. Allied warships, meanwhile, be-

Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Leib spent the weekend at Aberdeen, Md., where their son, Larry, is stationed.

The miracles that come in cans

Once upon a time oranges were rare, expensive luxuries. Only the richest kids in town could afford them. If you were lucky you got one a year—in the toe of your Christmas stocking.

Today, millions enjoy healthful orange juice packed in cans. The vitamins and minerals you get this way are just one example of an everyday miracle of modern living that every Pennsylvania family takes pretty much for granted.

What brought about this miracle—and many others like it? The answer is simple. It was your demand for better, more appetizing, more healthful foods of all kinds. These demands were met by American business (including American Can Company), devoted to bringing you better products at lower cost.

Satisfying your needs has created thousands of jobs in farming, food processing and distribution. It has required a lot of research—which has produced better and more convenient food containers. It has increased and stabilized farm income. It has even meant higher property values in some areas.

In fact, it would be hard for you to go through a single day without enjoying many of the benefits that have resulted directly from the activities of the canning and can-making industries in your State.

The 35,000 American Can Company people are proud of their part in this story of industrial progress.

Your free choice in buying more and more of what you need in cans has enabled them to perform many miracles in the past—and to promise even greater things in the future.

RESERVISTS
REFUND PAY;
PROBE ASKED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Naval authorities in Washington have been asked for an explanation why some 110 re-enlisted reservists at the Willow Grove (Pa.) Naval Air Station have been ordered to pay back mustering out pay they received under the Korean GI Bill of Rights.

Joseph Roberts, commander of Naval Post 195 of the American Legion, said the situation first came to light when several of the men complained to him after being gan the third year of their bombardment and siege of the Eastern Korean port of Wonsan. The U. S. heavy cruiser Toledo and two destroyers, the Wedderburn and the Moore, shelled shore installations.

told they had to return the money.

Some of the reservists received as high as $300 mustering out pay last August, the Legion spokesman said, and, after re-enlisting, were told they had to return the money.

Robbins said he wrote to Sen. James H. Duff (R-Pa.) informing him of the situation and received an answer from the Pennsylvania senator saying he had asked the chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts for the Navy for an explanation.

The situation arose, Robbins said, through what the Navy terms an error in interpreting the new GI bill enacted by the Congress last July.

The paymaster at the Willow Grove station, Robbins added, was informed by the Navy that "no further action will be taken pending further instruction by air mail."

Losing every one in a series of battles, Gen. Nathaniel Greene nevertheless harassed the British out of Georgia and the Carolinas in the Revolutionary war.

IMPORTATION OF FOREIGN OIL IS BEING OPPOSED

WASHINGTON (AP)—A non-partisan drive by Republican and Democratic members of the House from Pennsylvania is underway today to curb importation of foreign oil.

What is imported is left-over oil—and the Keystone State congressmen say the use of it in the U. S. is dealing coal and economic blow.

And, the argument goes further, if the coal industry is hurt so are the railroads which have to haul the coal to market.

Want Annual Limit

The Pennsylvania congressmen, united, are urging that importation of foreign oil be limited to a certain quantity each year.

A statement in the congressional record by Rep. Saylor, Johnstown Republican, is typical of the argument that is being presented. He said:

"My latest information is that there is no sign of a cessation in the heavy shipping schedules that poured an aggregate of 126 million barrels of residual (oil) into our East Coast public utility generating stations and into manufacturing plants during the past year.

Means 25,000 Jobs

"Figured in terms of British thermal units, this amount was equal to 31 million tons of coal, or about 6 1/2 per cent of all the bituminous coal produced in the United States last year.

"If there is anyone among us who questions the significance of a 6 1/2 per cent decline in coal production, I would like to say that it is enough to eradicate entirely the jobs of some 25,000 miners and to inflict economic havoc upon scores of coal communities.

"There will obviously be no halting the decline attributable to unfair competition from foreign residual oil unless relief is provided by this legislative body.

40 Million Lost

"At present rates these imports from foreign refineries are taking an annual toll of 75 million dollars in miners' wages. And since the annual freight revenue lost to the railroads because of foreign residual oil amounts to $85,983,000, you will find that it represents a loss

Littlestown

LITTLESTOWN—Mrs. Myrtle R. Manthey, a teacher in the Littlestown Elementary School, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of Christ Reformed Church on Sunday evening. Mrs. Manthey discussed the topic "Humanity's Oneness." The meeting opened with a selection "American Anthem" by the Christ Church orchestra, following with the group singing of "When We'll Never Grow Old." The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Lewis E. Bair was prayer was offered by Mervin K. Myers. The offertory selection "Dear Heart" was played by Lucille Shoemaker. The society president, Mervin K. Myers, conducted the business session. The meeting concluded with the group singing of "O'Beulah Land" and the Lord's Prayer and C. E. benediction were repeated in unison.

The members of the Senior choir of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet for rehearsal immediately following the Wednesday evening Lenten devotions. The Intermediate choir will rehearse on Thursday at 6 p.m. and the Junior choir on Friday at 6 p.m.

There will be rehearsal for the Littlestown Men's Chorus on Thursday evening at 9 o'clock in the Adult Sunday School room of St. Paul's Church.

The Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's Reformed Church, has announced that the Senior Choir will have rehearsal immediately following the Wednesday evening Lenten devotions throughout the season of Lent, instead of every Thursday night.

The Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, attended the annual pre-Lenten retreat of the West Pennsylvania Conference of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America, held on Monday afternoon in the Church of the Abiding Presence, Theological Seminary campus, Gettysburg.

of some 40 million dollars to wages of railroad workers.

"I question whether the nation can afford to see these basic industries suffer to such an extent. I can assure you that we in the coal producing and shipping centers of this country cannot afford to have these conditions prevail."

HAS 3-POINT MILK-PRICING PLAN TO OFFER

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—A three-point milk-pricing program it says would increase farmers' incomes by about 12 million dollars a year is urged by the Eastern Milk Producers Co-operative Association.

Harry M. Smith of Bellefonte, Pa., chairman of the co-operative's service committee, made the proposal on Sunday on his arrival here for a federal-state hearing Monday on service payments to co-operatives in the six-state New York milkshed.

Smith's proposal, which he said would mean an average increase of about $240 for each of the nearly 50,000 dairy farmers in the milkshed, included:

1. Establishing a minimum price of $5.12 per hundredweight (about 47 quarts) for milk sold for fluid consumption in the New York market in April, May or June. This, Smith said, would yield farmers about four million dollars more a year.

2. Raising the price of milk sold for fluid consumption in non-federally regulated markets to that of the New York market. Such a boost, he said, would bring farmers about $3,400,000 more annually.

3. Increasing the price of milk for use in manufactured dairy products to the average level paid by 18 Midwest condensers. This, he said, would have resulted in an increase to farmers of about $4,600,000 last year.

Smith said Eastern, which claims about 7,000 members, had sent its proposal, in petition form, to Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Say Russians Started Air Battle Over Northern Japan

TOKYO (AP)—Russian planes started 10-minute air battle with American Thunderjets over Northern Japan yesterday, the U. S. Air Force declared today.

The two LA1 prop-driven fighters were intercepted about three miles inside Japan's aerial boundary off Hokkaido, an Air Force spokesman said.

Lt. Benedict A. Lacombe of Pineville, La., one of the U. S. pilots, said the intruders turned immediately and roared toward the Thunderjets, their machine guns firing.

One Red Plane Hit

Neither Thunderjet was hit. Lacombe said he hit one of the Soviet planes and set it afire. Both LA1s fled toward the Kuriles, only 4 1/2 miles from Hokkaido. Lacombe indicated the damaged plane may not have made it.

Lacombe and his wing man, 2nd Lt. James T. Holmes of Rye, N. Y., said they didn't get close enough to determine the nationality of the intruding aircraft. But they described them as "well-qualified, experienced pilots."

A Far East Air Forces spokesman said flatly that the first shots were fired by the Russian planes.

Spotted By Radar

That touched off the first air battle between American and Soviet fighter planes over Northern Japan.

The skirmish opened up at 16,000 feet near Nemuro, a town situated on a cape jutting out from Eastern Hokkaido.

U. S. radar operators spotted the invading planes and guided Lacombe and Holmes toward them. The Thunderjets broke off the chase under their standing orders to avoid violation of Russian territory.

DEMOCRATS GET INVITATION TO POLICY TALKS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration moved today to broaden congressional support of its policies by inviting Democrats to sit in on foreign and domestic policy talks.

Chairman Bridges (R-NH) called Secretary of State Dulles and Mutual Security Administrator Harold E. Stassen for testimony tomorrow before the 23-member Senate appropriations committee on proposed foreign aid spending and general international policies.

The White House arranged to have congressional leaders of both parties briefed by Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and others on the world military situation at a Thursday conference.

A bipartisan group of lawmakers was invited to a White House discussion earlier the same day on proposals to set up a commission to study federal-state relations.

Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.) proposed that Senate and House Armed Services Committees sit together March 4 to hear Gen.

CIGARETTES, OTHER ITEMS TO BE PRICE-FREE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cigarettes, cosmetics, coal, lumber and major household appliances today topped a government list of items likely to be freed of price controls this week.

Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) officials predicted cigarettes generally would rise a penny a pack and cosmetics up to 10 per cent. They said such increases would cost the public perhaps 300 million dollars a year—200 million for tobacco, 100 million for cosmetics.

A top price official said other items tentatively placed on the current decontrol list which may be altered or increased by tomorrow, include:

The Prices May Change

Office equipment; manufacturers' prices of radio and television parts, already removed from controls at the wholesale and retail level; and some, but not all, remaining foods under curbs probably will be put together in a decontrol package in the next two or three weeks.

Main food items still under ceilings include milk, dairy products, oleomargarine, bread and bakery goods, dry groceries and cereals, jams, jellies and some soups.

An official said there is a possibility beer may be substituted for cigarettes on the current list.

Flood Fire In Hold Of Big French Ship

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—Firemen pumped thousands of gallons of water into holds of the French passenger and cargo ship Ferdinand de Lesseps today and put out a fire that forced the 11,150-ton vessel to make an emergency run into Naples harbor.

The ship, en route from Djibouti, French Somaliland, to Marseille, France, with 460 passengers and a 1,977-ton cargo of sugar, peanuts, rice and coffee, arrived with smoke billowing from her two forward holds.

Naples firemen, manning two huge pumps, poured water at the rate of 1,200 gallons a minute to extinguish the flames.

Crew members said an explosion preceded the flames but the cause was not immediately determined.

James A. Van Fleet explained his belief that a United Nations general offensive now could be successful in Korea. Saltonstall said he would put the matter up to the Senate committee today before consulting House leaders.

Neither Baron de Kalb nor Baron von Steuben, foreigners who served with distinction in the Revolutionary War, was a real baron. Both had assumed titles to further their professional careers.
